Herberger Theater Center Art Gallery
Call To Artists Prospectus Now Available

PHOENIX – The Herberger Theater Center is now accepting applications for inclusion in our Steele Pavilion Art Gallery. Submit artwork for consideration in an exhibit in the first half of 2010. Work is selected using a blind juried panel consisting of artists from various disciplines. Entries must be postmarked by October 1, 2009.

The overall theme for 2010 is Fellow Humans. Art exhibits will focus on the timeless connection between art and the human form. Guest curator is Michel Sarda. The first two themes are “Identity” and “Empathy”.

The Prospectus is open to artists residing in Arizona, 18 years and older. A brief resume or bio, up to ten electronic images and a $20 non-refundable fee must accompany entry form. Official rules and application are available on the art gallery page of our website at www.herbergertheater.org or by calling (602) 254-7399 x 198.

The Herberger Theater Center is a non-profit organization whose mission is to support and foster the growth of the performing arts in Phoenix as the premier performance venue, arts incubator and advocate.
