HERBERGER THEATER CELEBRATES 20TH ANNIVERSARY AND HONORS RICHARD MALLERY

PHOENIX – The Herberger Theater Center will induct Richard Mallery into the Herberger Performing & Broadcast Arts Hall of Fame during the theater's 20th anniversary Founders Celebration on March 18, 2010. Mallery is a partner with law firm Snell & Wilmer and Founding President of the Herberger Theater Center.

The event will also recognize the original founders of the Herberger Theater with a luncheon held on Center Stage and performance by SCAN Originals. Tickets are $100/person or $1,000/table of ten.

The Herberger Performing and Broadcast Arts Hall of Fame was established in 2000. It honors an Arizona native and/or resident that has achieved national or international acclaim in the field of the performing arts and/or broadcast communications. Past inductees include: Hugh Downs, Pat McMahon, Leslie Nielsen, Alice Cooper, Robert & Katherine "Kax" Herberger and Dennis Rowland.

The Herberger Theater Center is a non-profit organization whose mission is to support and foster the growth of the performing arts in Phoenix as the premier performance venue, arts incubator and advocate.
