HERBERGER THEATER CENTER TO HONOR RICHARD MALLERY WITH INDUCTION INTO HERBERGER HALL OF FAME

PHOENIX – The Herberger Theater Center will induct Richard Mallery into the Herberger Performing and Broadcast Arts Hall of Fame on March 18, 2010 during a luncheon to celebrate the theater’s 20th anniversary. Mallery is a partner with law firm Snell & Wilmer and Founding President of the Herberger Theater Center.

Richard Bowers, President of the Herberger Theater Center says, “Dick Mallery’s keen vision, leadership, resolve to shape a dynamic downtown and ability to make it happen contributed immeasurably to the construction of the Herberger Theater Center... the Crown Jewel of downtown Phoenix.” Bowers continues, “Dick Mallery is a history maker. We will honor him with a lasting monument that will stand in testament to his contributions and be a witness to countless offspring of his vision yet to be realized.”

The Founders Luncheon will also honor the founders of the Herberger Theater with a luncheon on Center Stage, performance by SCAN Originals and induction of Mr. Mallery.

The Herberger Performing and Broadcast Arts Hall of Fame was established in 2000. It honors an Arizona native and/or resident that has achieved national or international acclaim in the field of the performing arts and/or broadcast communications. Past inductees include: Hugh Downs, Pat McMahon, Leslie Nielsen, Alice Cooper, Robert & Katherine “Kax” Herberger and Dennis Rowland.

The Herberger Theater Center is a non-profit organization whose mission is to support and foster the growth of the performing arts in Phoenix as the premier performance venue, arts incubator and advocate.
