

Our patrons say it all the time: There are no bad seats at the Herberger Theater Center. That's because we want the performing arts to be enjoyable for everyone in the house.

After our recent renovations, the seats in Center Stage are now lushly upholstered in red, and Stage West glows with seats covered in gold. The only thing missing? Your name engraved on a bronze plaque permanently affixed to the arm of a theater seat!

Sitting in a theater seat for a performance is certainly the best way to support the arts, but how about having something to show for it for years to come? Your name on a theater seat is a great way to acknowledge your contribution to the Herberger Theater Center and the work we do with the local arts community and our Arts Education and Outreach Programs.

Our vision: To provide and support significant and relevant experiences in the arts.

The Herberger Theater Center is delighted to be home to three resident companies: Actors Theatre, Arizona Theatre Company and Center Dance Ensemble.

Other local theater companies also perform on our stages. To provide a venue at an affordable cost, the Herberger Theater Center must raise funds not only to support the local performing arts, but to also sustain its Arts Education and Outreach Programs. These programs provide youth in our community with a unique vantage point from which to experience the magic of theater.

No, you're not in the hot seat.

But you can be. Just in case you are considering the sponsorship of a theater seat, know that it would go down in Herberger history. It would also include a listing in the Herberger Theater playbill and a map noting the location of your theater seat.

I'll take a seat!

Center Stage
