

MEDIA RELEASE

July 15, 2009

Contact: Laurene Austin 602.254-7399 x105

laustin@herbergertheater.org

HERBERGER THEATER ART GALLERY
FEATURES "SPACE, ALL THAT REMAINS" EXHIBIT

PHOENIX – The Herberger Theater Center's fall art gallery exhibit, "Space, All That Remains", will be on display October 2, 2009 – January 3, 2010. Exhibit opening is First Friday, October 2, 5:30-7pm. Artwork is available for purchase with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the Herberger Theater Center.

"Space, All That Remains" showcases the work of 14 Arizona artists. At the end of the growth cycle, life force either retreats within or transcends its own form, leaving behind the exquisite shell as a record of its time. This exhibit features sculpture which focuses on the process of movement and growth.

Featured artists include: Carlton Bradford, Cheryl Brandon, Mark Carroll, Kerstin Lee Jones Dale, Chad Godt, Barbara & Don Kirschner, Melodee Loyer, Scott McNeill, John Soderburg, Scott Stovall, Taun, Junjie Verzosa and Susan Rae Westover.

The Herberger Theater Center is a non-profit organization whose mission is to support and foster the growth of the performing arts in Phoenix as the premier performance venue, incubator and advocate.

For more information, visit www.herbergertheater.org or call 602.254.7399.

###